You saw the results of his efforts earlier tonight, when an athlete from his team was recognized for earning three top medals at the IHSA State competition this year. Ryan is a graduate of Hoffman Estates High School and also teaches English there.

In 2013, Ryan was named a finalist for the prestigious Golden Apple Award for Excellence in Teaching, putting him in an elite group in Illinois. He also has been recognized as a “Top Teacher” in the Northwest suburbs by the Daily Herald. Mr. Brown has sponsored several student clubs and organizations in addition to his coaching and credits his success to the guidance of the teachers he encountered as a District 211 student. He told us nearly a decade ago that it already had been an “awesome journey,” and he says that every day he finds another reason to love being a Hoffman Estates High School Hawk.

Ryan, congratulations on your award and thank you for your contributions toward excellence within Hoffman Estates High School and our District.”
